The type of personal information we collect

We currently collect and process the following information:

- Personal identifiers, contacts and characteristics (for example, name, email address, gender identity, date of birth, educational attainment, country, ZIP/postcode)

How we get the personal information and why we have it

Most of the personal information we process is provided to us directly by you for one of the following reasons:

- So that we can notify you in respect of upcoming events
- So that we have some idea of the type of people coming to our events

This information is used internally by the CAIS organisation only. We do not share this information with anyone outside the CAIS organisation.

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

(a) Your consent. You are able to remove your consent at any time. You can do this by contacting info@cambridgeaisocial.org.

How we store your personal information

Your information is securely stored (in a database attached to our website).

We keep the above-listed information for the duration that your account exists on our website. We will then dispose your information by manually deleting your account from our website if you ask us to.

Your data protection rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

Please contact us at info@cambridgeaisocial.org if you wish to make a request.

How to complain

If you have any concerns about our use of your personal information, you can make a complaint to us at info@cambridgeaisocial.org.

You can also complain to the ICO if you are unhappy with how we have used your data.
